Code of Conduct: Parents, Guardians and Spectators

Newcastle Staffs Volleyball Club is fully committed to maintaining and promoting the wellbeing of all its members, and believes that it is important that members, coaches, administrators and parents associated with the club should show respect and understanding for the safety and welfare of others.

Therefore, members are encouraged to be open at all times to share any concerns or complaints that they may have about any aspect of the club with their coach, team manager, or another adult club member that they trust. NSVC has a Welfare Officer to deal with any concerns; this is Kate Lang

Our Safeguarding/Welfare contact email address is safeguarding@nsvc.co.uk

Any breaches of the code of conduct may be subject to the clubs disciplinary process.

Parents, Guardians and Spectators are expected to:

- Support your child's/team's involvement and help them to enjoy their volleyball
- Encourage your child to learn the rules of Volleyball and play with them where possible
- Discourage unfair play and arguing with officials
- Help your child to recognise good performance and not just results
- Never force your child to take part in volleyball
- Ensure that your child arrives in time for their sessions ensuring that they are able to fully participate in the warm up
- Set a good example by recognising fair play and applauding the good performances of all teams
- Never punish or belittle a child for losing or making mistakes

- Publicly accepts officials decisions
- Use correct and proper language at all times
- Respect the coach and other staff for their efforts
- Ensure that your child is always dressed appropriately for the relevant activity
- Ensure that your child has always had enough fluid prior to the activity and has an appropriate drink with them at training sessions and competitions
- Treat others with respect and fairness, this includes the use of social media & networking sites
